

Chloe Davison

Currently partaking in freelance projects alongside a 6 month internship with Chrysalis Mindset has given me fluidity between briefs and projects. Starting Naked Space Studio has allowed me to explore my illustrative interests alongside my graphic skills in my spare time; all whilst expanding my network. By fostering a productive workplace, I help my team and client get the best results possible. I am eager to find my next creative position that will provide me the chance to grow.

Education

Cardiff Metropolitan University (2018-2021)

- Graphic Communications BA(Hons) - 2:1

Experience

Graphic Design Assistant Internship (2022-2023)

- Chrysalis Mindset has given me experience within a design role and the ability to adapt my creative skills across multiple platforms and briefs. Whilst completing my internship the company has also given me the opportunity to enhance my emotional intelligence and leadership skills through their courses.

Freelance Projects (2020-present)

- Working with Global-C and the pattern designer to create renders of accessories for various airline cabin classes to be used in presentations for clients.
- Working with Marty Supplies as their graphic designer to create online adverts following guidelines whilst adding life to still products.

University Projects (2020-2021)

- During briefs at university, I had the pleasure of working with Cardiff City Hospice and Sphere: Sports Healing Rehabilitation, giving myself experience working with clients collaboratively and remotely.

Employment

Retail Assistant (2017-2020)

Bar Staff (2020-2021)

Sales Assistant (2021-2022)

- Working for successful companies such as Paperchase, Wetherspoons and Primark has provided me a wealth of retail and sales knowledge alongside following strict procedures. This has also helped my organisational and time management skills.
